COUNTY PARKS AND RECREATION OFFERS FREE NIGHT CAMPING Free Offer Intended to Make Up for Inconvenience Caused by Park Closures

San Diego County Department of Parks and Recreation is offering a free night of camping to all campers who were forced to cancel and reschedule their County Park excursions due to the recent wildfires. Campers who had reservations during the week of the fires or during the time in which County parks were closed due to emergency fire response can obtain a free night of camping when they reschedule their reservations within three months of their original reservation date.

Renée E. Bahl, Department of Parks and Recreation Director, said, "We have all been impacted by the tragedy of the fires and are looking to get back into our routines of life. We thought it was important to compensate for any inconvenience our campers might have experienced due to the fires and wanted to extend an additional free night's stay when they come and visit us."

For more information or to reschedule a reservation, please contact the Reservations Desk at 858-565-3600. The department continues to offer other special rates for recreational campers. For monthly camping specials please visit www.sdcounty.org.
